

Organized Crime Fingerprints All Over Ransomware

Imperva Application Defense Center (ADC) peels the layers and shows the involvement of organized crime in the CryptoWall ransomware. The lack of cyber security laws, inaction from law enforcement, and the ability to successfully execute campaigns using anonymous Tor networks is enabling organized cyber criminals to profit from ransomware and grow at a tremendous pace. Read the full report and learn how you can protect yourself from ransomware.